This Cedar passageway was installed in a church courtyard off a busy street. While the design echoes the neo-Gothic architecture, the use of curves and the clear cedar soften the landscape and create a more inviting passageway both when viewed from the street and walking through.

PASSAGEWAY FOR ST. JOHN'S CHURCH

Victoria, BC

VICTORIA
Wood Studio